W. C. T. U. NOTES

The W. C. T. U. will hold their Parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. J. H. in on Tuesday, November 2nd at 2:30. The delegates will give reports of the Convention held in Edmonton. A ten cent tea will be served. All ladies are heartily invited. Also a special invitation to the Jutland W. C. T. U.

On Wednesday evening, October 19th, the members of the W. C. T. U. and their husbands to the number of about seventy, motored to the home of Mrs. Van Wyk's where a parlor meeting was conducted. A program of recitations, songs, etc. were given an attentive hearing.

Mrs. McKinney, of Clareholm, delivered a very interesting and forceful address, dealing with W. C. T. U. work especially as related to the prohibition movement throughout the world.

Mr. Hugh Sinclair, Reeve of Meekoch Municipality, Alex Gibbs and Gordon Adams all motored over from Munson and were visitors in Didsbury on Saturday. Hugh is an old timer of this district. He states that the crops in the Munson and Meekoch districts have been very good this year considering conditions, averaging about 35 bushels of wheat to the acre.

Another Fatal Shooting Accident

Another terrible shooting accident occurred on Monday afternoon when Mrs. R. M. Blackburn, who lives in the Fallen Timber district, met a sudden death by the explosion of a shotgun.

It appears that Dr. Duncan had called for Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn to go on a shooting trip with him. They had returned to the Blackburn home and were getting out of the car, Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn had been sitting in the back seat. Mrs. Blackburn had gotten out first and was standing close to one side while Mr. Blackburn was alighting backward out of the same door with the gun in his hand, the muzzle of which was pointing back wards. The gun was loaded and by some means was discharged. Mrs. Blackburn receiving the full charge in the left side of the head and face, being instantly killed. Medical aid was summoned but of course nothing could be done.

The Coroner, Dr. Clarke, after an investigation decided that an inquest was unnecessary. The funeral will take place from Ed. Gardner's home on Thursday at 2 o'clock.

Auto and Buggy Collide

An accident that might have resulted in at least severe injury if not death happened to Mr. Hunsperger, the postmaster, on Monday night as he was driving home from the office.

It appears that he had reached the part of the road that parallels the railroad track near his home when a train with its bright headlight was coming in from the south. He noticed that there were also two dim lights ahead of him but thought they were some distance off, the bright light of the engine somewhat confusing him. However, the dim lights were on a automobile which was very close a hand and the consequences was the car ran into Mr. Hunsperger's buggy, smashing it up pretty badly and scaring his horse which ran away. Mr. Hunsperger was thrown violently out of the rig but very fortunately outside of a few bruises sustained, no other injuries for which his many friends will be thankful. The driver of the auto was in no way to blame for the accident.

Death of Real Old Timer

The death of Mr. Ephraim Shantz took place at his home in Didsbury last Thursday, October 27th, after an illness lasting for some time. The funeral was held on Saturday last and as Mr. Shantz has been a greatly respected and well liked member of the community since before the time there was any such place as Didsbury it was very largely attended, in fact it was the largest funeral ever held in Didsbury.

Mr. Shantz came here 27 years ago with the first settlers in this district, his father, Mr. Jacob V. Shantz being immigration agent at that time and being in these first settlers which also included Mr. Hunsperger the postmaster.

Deceased took up a homestead on a short distance north of town where he remained for some years, finally building a nice little home in Didsbury which he occupied until his death. He was a prominent member of the Methodist church and although of a very quiet disposition and not a man who pushed himself into undue prominence nevertheless took an active part in the welfare of the community, being a member of the School Board for

Where Railway Revenue Comes From

Certain statements made before the board of arbitration at Ottawa on the same disputes between the Canadian National Railways and their employees would appear to have a direct bearing on Canada's outstanding financial problem, namely, how to put an end to the appalling deficits in the operation of the national railway system.

Ever since the deficit on the Canadian National Railways was shown some time ago to amount to a million dollars or more a week, statements, however, railway managers, and last but not least, Canadian taxpayers, have been deeply concerned in striving to find some way of relief from such disastrous losses. While politicians have been striving to load the responsibility for creating conditions leading to these deficits upon political opponents, and while pessimists have talked big rain and inevitable bankruptcy, men with constructive minds and not at all concerned with flimsiness which is always to be found in politics, have seriously advanced suggestions with an eye single to the good of the railways and the welfare of the Dominion.

Probably the suggestion which has attracted greatest attention and earned most weight with thoughtful people is that only through an increase in population, with consequent increase in production, and therefore in railway traffic, can the true and lasting remedy be found. Economies effected in operation costs at the expense of efficient service might serve to temporarily reduce the deficit, but such reduction would only be of a temporary character and in the long run would prove to have been pennywise and pound foolish. More traffic, and therefore greater earning power, offers the only permanent solution.

The question now presents itself, how to bring about that increase in traffic? In this column we have urged the adoption of a vigorous and well directed immigration policy with a view to bringing about the settlement without further delay of the enormous area of unutilized lands in the West, and the prosecution of such a policy without intermission until the desired result has been achieved.

In this connection it is to be noted that the statements made before the board of arbitration at Ottawa already referred to are highly significant. They have a direct bearing on this question, and certainly go to support the arguments already advanced. Addressing the board of arbitration, F. P. Brady, of the Canadian National Railways, declared that the railways would be better off without passenger traffic, and that sleeping cars and observation cars were invariably a source of loss, while A. C. Egan, for the Canadian National, made the statement that all the railway's profits are made during the last five months of the year when the grain is moving.

Of course, passenger traffic must be earned for whether it is a paying proposition or not, but if observation cars, which are a luxury and not a necessity, invariably lose money, then they should be reduced to a minimum or discarded altogether. Furthermore, inasmuch as it is only the well-to-do who make use of sleeping cars, rates should be advanced to a figure where such cars would not be operated at a loss, even though they did not produce a profit. Or the rate should be reduced to a figure that would make it possible for the less well-to-do to use them, thus obtaining these cars running across the continent only partly filled. Volume at a less rate would be more profitable than half-empty cars. The average Canadian taxpayer should not be called upon to provide comfort for others which he cannot himself afford to enjoy.

The amount of money it requires to build a sleeping car or an observation car will build several freight cars, and according to these railway officials, it is freight that produces profits. Again, he is noted, freight profits are piled up when there is a heavy and continuous freight movement, as is the case when the grain is moving. It is not the halting of the products of the factories that keeps the railways busy during the last five months of the year, but the products of the farms. But if, through immigration and the creation of conditions which will keep the people on the land, the number of cultivated farms in Canada are doubled, or tripled, it is quite possible, not only would the volume of grain traffic be enormously increased during the last five months of the year, with still larger profits to the railways, but these additional millions of people on the farms would create an enormous demand for manufactured goods, fuel, lumber and merchandise of all kinds, which would provide a much heavier freight traffic throughout the entire seven months of the year.

What can Canadian farmers need more than anything else is more traffic to keep profitably loaded trains rolling over the tens of thousands of miles of rails in this country. In order to create that larger traffic there must be more people in Canada—people who in the first place produce something from the ground, utilisable natural resources of this Dominion and who, in turn, would require to be supplied with those things, manufactured and otherwise, which they do not themselves produce but must have to sustain life and enable them to carry on their work of production.

A national policy to encourage production is the only way to save the National Railways and make them earners of profits instead of producers of deficits.

A DESIRE TO EAT WHAT YOU WANT

Stomachs Can Be Restored to a Healthy Condition.

Not to be limited in diet, but to eat whatever he pleases is the dream of every dyspeptic. No one can honestly promise to restore any stomach to this happy condition, because all people cannot eat the same things with equally satisfactory results. But it is possible to tone up the digestive organs, that is, to make them select from articles of food that cause no discomfort.

When the stomach lacks tone there is no quicker way to restore it than to build up the blood. Good digestion without rich red blood is impossible, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills offer the best way to enrich the blood. For this reason, these pills are especially good in stomach trouble attended by thin blood, and in attacks of nervous dyspepsia. Proof of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of indigestion is given by Mr. John A. McDonald, Toronto, N.S., who says: "Every sufferer from indigestion has my hearty sympathy, as I was once in just a bad case like it. Eating at all became a trial, and as time went on I became a mere skeleton of my former self. I took all sorts of recommended medicines, doctors and advertised, but to no avail. Then a friend said to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got a box and I thought before they were done I could feel a change. Then I got six boxes more, and by the time they were used I was eating five meals with regularity and enjoyment. My general health is now good, and it is no wonder that I am an enthusiastic advocate of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can procure Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any druggist or mail order or they will be sent you by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by mail direct to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

It Will Prevent Ulcerated Throat.—At the first symptoms of sore throat, which presages ulceration and inflammation, take a spoonful of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Add a little sugar to it to make it palatable. It will allay the irritation and prevent the ulceration and swelling that are so painful. Those who have periodically subject to quinsy have thus made themselves immune to attack.

Millions For Roads In West

Twenty Million Will Be Spent on Rural Highways.

At least $20,000,000 will be spent on highways and market roads in Western Canada during the next five years according to the provincial propositions which have now been submitted and approved by the Federal authorities. Manitoba programme provides for the construction of 1,000 miles of roads at an estimated cost of $2,500,000. The Dominion Government Act providing for subsidies will result in reimbursing the province to the extent of $1,402,265. Saskatchewan has outlined a construction covering 2,500 miles which is expected to cost $5,250,000, of which $1,906,250 will be repaid by the Federal Government. Alberta intends to go ahead with 2,475 miles of roadway, the estimated cost of which is $2,681,250. Of this sum $1,177,500 will be paid by the Federal Government. This programme is for rural roads and does not include the sums which will be spent as civic enterprise. The highway systems of the three prairie provinces will be thus linked up.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 2nd,

Local Men Honored

Jim McGhee and E. E. Freeman Elected to Board of Governors of Alberta Amateur Athletic Union. The annual meeting of the Alberta Amateur Athletic Union was held in Calgary a few days ago and Calgary's popular Chief of Police was elected as President for the season of 1921-22.

Chief Ritchie, who is an athlete himself, will make a capable leader for the Alberta branch. In accepting the position he said: "I will do everything in my power to further the interests of amateur sport in the province."

Assisting the President will be E. D. Battling who is well known in athletic circles and who was again honored with the secretaryship of the Union.

The following officers were elected:

Honorary President—Lieut. Gov. Brett.

Honorary Vice Presidents—Mayors of the cities in Alberta.

President—Capt. Dave Ritchie, Calgary.

Vice President—Hon. J. H. Lang, Medicine Hat.

Secretary—Wm. D. Leithbridge, Edmonton.

Assistant Secretary—William Mat thews, Edmonton.

Governors—Wm. G. McDonald, Calgary; Dr. Sanderson, Calgary; C. E. Rice, Edmonton; J. McEwen, Edmonton; Deas Kerr, Edmonton; A. B. McEachern, Medicine Hat; Judge Jackson, Leithbridge; J. W. Jenkins, Calgary; Col. Peakes, Calgary; Archie Cunningham, Calgary; E. E. Freeman, Didsbury; Capt. Robt. Pearson, Calgary; Keith Muir, Edmonton; Leroy Chown, Calgary; Joe Muir, Edmonton; T. M. Gage, Red Deer; L. D. Leach, Oliver; Barnes Collier, Banff; G. R. Jackson, Edmonton; Dr. McEwen, Edmonton; R. J. Dinning, Leithbridge; J. La France, Ponoka.

Calgary's idea to form two senior hockey teams this winter to enter one in the Rosedale league and the other with Okotoks, High River and another southern Alberta club was very thoroughly discussed by several officials who were in Calgary Saturday attending the annual meeting of the A. A. U.

James McGhee, President of the Rosedale league, was doubtful of a circuit with Carstairs, Olds, Didsbury and Calgary could be financed.

He also pointed out that the three northern clubs would be playing at intermediates and Calgary with such a large population to draw from would be able to form too strong a team. However, Mr. McGhee promised to have the matter brought up at the annual meeting of the Rosedale league.

It would require about $50 a game to finance the league, and it is doubtful if the country towns could take that much money in at the gate.

President Jack Gordon of the Calgary City League stated that the proposition was put up with the idea with outside competition amateur hockey in this city would be elevated to the standing that it merits and that big crowds would turn out to see the local clubs play against Didsbury, Carstairs and Olds.

Jim McGhee has also been placed on the registration committee which deals with all questions regarding amateur cards where there is any dispute as to any kind.

Curling Meeting

The annual meeting of the Didsbury Curling Club was held on Friday, October 28th in the office of P. R. Reed. Pres. A. G. Stader occupied the chair to open the meeting. The old officers then resigned and the following were elected for the coming season: Pres., E. E. Freeman; Vice-Pres., A. Campbell; Sec. Treas., A. C. Fisher; Schedule Secy., G. Wigglesworth; Membership Committee, W. Hardy, T. Thompson.

It was decided that the telephone be installed for the season as it was last year. The Club will also join the Alberta Branch of the Royal C. C. Columbia Club. Those who wish to card this season are requested to hand in their names to the Secretary or membership committee, the fees for the coming year being paid at $8.

CONRAD-MOOSER

The marriage of Mr. Earl Conrad to Miss Margaret Mooser took place in St. Barnabas church, Hildesheim, Calgary, on Saturday, October 15th. The happy couple spent their honeymoon at Banff. On their return home to Crossfield a big wedding reception was tendered them in the Alberta hotel where over two hundred guests assembled for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Conrad were the recipients of a large number of beautiful presents and received the congratulations and good wishes of the whole community.

Mr. E. Conrad, mentioned in the above report, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Conrad of the Alberta Hotel, Crossfield, in the earlier days before the big fire, proprietor of the old Golden West Hotel in Didsbury.

Views of Prominent Men on Business

"These favorable prospects should not serve as any excuse for reverting to the easy-going, careless business methods developed during the period of inflation. But business is going to be decidedly better. The country merchant who will profit by recent experience and make the most of his opportunities during the next few months by devoting the utmost energy to collecting his accounts 'eliminating or closely restricting credit sales, getting rid of his surplus stock at close figures based on present values, and buying carefully for immediate requirements only, can materially improve his position, which in turn means easier conditions in the wholesale trade.

"In the meantime we have no fault to find with the present conditions. We are enjoying the largest volume of trade since our business was established in 1914."

The next man heard from was Mr. R. J. Hutchings. Mr. Hutchings is a manufacturer as well as a wholesaler. No one who has not dreamed of being unduly optimistic. He is a realist who likes to look facts in the face and that is the only way to do if one hopes to make progress in business or to understand the conditions as they are. Mr. Hutchings claims to be an optimist, but certainly it is optimism based on a shrewd knowledge of conditions as they are.

Mr. Hutchings says: "Looking, however, to the future, I am optimistic and the reason that I am optimistic is because I have every confidence in Canada's future. I appreciate to a reasonable extent the value of her splendid resources, and most of all I have every confidence in the Canadian people—people noted for their cool common sense and good judgement, their industry and their integrity, and for the spirit of co-operation and tolerance that has in a general way manifested itself as between Capital and Labor."

"For twelve months now conditions have been slowly adjusting themselves, and the period of readjustment is not yet fully completed, and will not be for some time yet. For instance, take the question of labor and some classes of labor have been reduced 50 to 60 per cent, while other classes of labor have been reduced very little, or not at all in some cases. Now, in order to get back to stability of conditions there must be more equitable adjustment of labor than at the present time exists."

"It would seem to me, too, that everything should be done to bring about a spirit of co-operation as between Labor and Capital. Briefly, we are in this position: Canada's principal exports are all of an agricultural nature—grain and meat stuffs, dairy products etc.—and the farmer today finds himself in a very difficult situation. The prices for the goods which he produces are not on a par with the cost of production. That is to say, everything he buys, together with his labor costs, are so high that he cannot produce at a profit, and most of them are meeting considerable loss. Agriculture is our basic industry in Canada, and to relieve the agricultural situation it is the patriotic duty of both Capital and Labor to place the farmer in the most favorable position by assisting him to secure the implements and necessities which he has to purchase from time to time at such favorable figures as will permit him to produce his bushel of wheat, or to produce his fat steer, on such a basis of cost that he can meet the world's competition in prices and yet make a living and a reasonable profit."

"So long as agriculture is unprofitable in Western Canada, just so long we shall suffer from our financial depression. Make the farmer prosperous and we shall all share in his prosperity. We prize for the products of the farm have come and gone and will not return. The farmer today has to meet the world's competition with most of his products, and we must assist him in every possible way to meet this competition and yet produce at a profit to himself. Conditions are adjusting themselves in this direction, but there is yet considerable adjustment to be made before we shall have anything like prosperity restored."

"Summarizing the situation as I see it, we shall perhaps touch the zero mark during the present winter, insofar as unemployment and difficult financial situation is concerned. Beginning with the spring, I anticipate a rather marked improvement in business conditions generally. I do not feel that we shall get back to normal times quickly. I would regard the process as covering perhaps two years, during which period, of course, we ought to see a continual gradual improvement. After two years I feel confident that Western Canada will embark on its most satisfactory period or era of development. I don't look forward to a boom growth but I do look forward to, and I feel confident that Western Canada will during the next few years come in for its own to an extent that has never before been the case. I look to see permanent, solid and substantial development, increased immigration of the best type, and altogether I am going to estimate that the population of, say, the Province of Alberta will perhaps be doubled during the next ten years."

"This, briefly, though very imperfectly placed before you, is my summing up of the situation as I see it."

"Our object in placing these statements before you is to give a conservative viewpoint of conditions as they exist. After all, good business or bad business is more or less a matter of feeling. Fundamentally conditions in the Dominion of Canada and throughout the American continent are sound. No one argues that the period of readjustment is completely passed, but it is a poor firm that has to go out of business because a few alternatives have been made. We are making certain alterations in the business structure of Canada. Readjustments are taking place, but business as usual can go on despite the change and conditions during the coming year in Canada should be good."

To the Public of Didsbury and District:

To the Citizens and Farmers of the Didsbury district:—Since I purchased the furniture of the Rosbud Hotel, I have endeavored to merit the patronage of the local people. I have reduced the price of meals to 50 cents and the price of rooms on the top floor to one dollar single or one fifty double. These prices are only for the people of Didsbury and district. The Rosbud Hotel is the best hotel between Calgary and Edmonton and is a great asset to Didsbury. I expect to remain here and want to make the hotel pay.

If you appreciate your hotel, and want to see it remain open—may I ask you for your patronage. There are many ways in which you can support and patronize the Hotel. We carry a complete line of tobaccos and soft drinks; we have an up-to-date pool room. If you enjoy this pleasant pastime, our dining room is second to none and you are welcome either in your overalls or in your best bib and tucker. Tommie Johnson is in charge of our barber shop and you can't beat Tommie's may I ask you to leave your shavers for the Hotel shop. Think these words over, folks, and remember I will appreciate your patronage and friendship.

Yours sincerely,

W. M. CLEMENSON.

AROUND THE TOWN

lunches will be served. Come one come all.

The Westerdale Methodist Church will hold a Thanksgiving supper under the auspices of the Ladies Aid on Monday evening (Thanksgiving Day) at 7 p. m. Admission 50c.

The Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. J. C. Stevens on Thursday November 10th, at 2.30. Paper by Mrs. Desdric. All ladies are cordially invited to attend.

The ladies of the community surrounding the Jethand school were organized into a new auxiliary of the W. C. T. U. After refreshments the meeting closed and the company dispersed feeling that the evening had been well spent.

Mr. Percy Seal of the C. P. R. staff returned on Sunday after a two weeks holiday. During his absence he was relieved by Mr. H. Welsh who was formerly a member of the Union Bank staff here.

A frost supper will be held in the Opera House on Armistice night, November 11th, by the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church. A good program will be rendered. Come and get something good to eat and have a good time.

Mr. D. Abel was up before the J. P. last week and fined the sum of $7.00 for an infraction of the law. Constable Sick had given him several warnings to have his yard cleaned up as it was in a very unsanitary condition. The warning however was not heeded with the result that Mr. Abel was convicted and fined the $7.00.

Friday the eleventh, Armistice day is also being made a Poppy day. Poppy Day is being held by all nations that participated in the war. The poppies will be sent from France where they are made by French orphans, and the proceeds will go in favor of French orphans and local relief. Further particulars will be published next week.

The old opera house garage at the north end of town has been leased to Mr. R. M. Wilson of Calgary. Mr. Wilson comes well recommended by the Diamond Motors Ltd., and the McLaughlin people of Calgary and has had fourteen years experience in auto and tractor repairing. He hopes to receive a fair share of the community patronage in his new undertaking in Didsbury.

A very successful Halloween party was held in the school on Friday night, staged by the Didsbury High School. The program put on by the students was very much enjoyed, the coin band coming in for special notice. Halloween games were played the greater part of the evening and lunch was then served upstairs. There were pumpkin pies and apples galore, and to mention the rest of the many fine courses on the menu. The evening was thus gaily brought to a close about midnight.
